CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE THEME: ENGAGE!

Saturday, February 23rd, 2019

8:30am-3:30pm

The annual Mendocino College Teachers on Teaching conference is designed to explore a variety of topics of interest to teachers across disciplines from Kindergarten through Community College.

The goal of the conference is to bring educators together to share ideas, build collaboration, and learn about current practices and projects in the community.

The conference is geared to current and future educators.

This year's theme is ENGAGE!

Our presenters will offer practical insights for engaging our students and colleagues. This year's workshop topics include:

- addressing climate change
- helping students develop their English language skills
- improving literacy
- teaching with compassion
- volunteer and project based learning
